Hi Efe,

Nadine here...

Thank you so much for ordering "The Stage is Yours"!

As promised, I have your BONUS Workbook attached...

Listen:

I've spent over a decade dedicating myself to creating the TLD method inside...

... and nearly went crazy going above and beyond to make every part of the book extremely clear and easy to put into practice!

When I get feedback from all the people who have gone through the book (some even in one go!)

It warms my heart to hear how much this has re-shaped the way they encounter the world...

...even as soon as Chapter 1!

So what you have here is a chance for real deep-rooted change!

I truly believe there's nothing out there that even holds a candle to this method.

I guess it's just something that 'clicks' when people read about someone who's walked the EXACT path they are now facing.

Someone who's not only experienced the trauma and stress, but also failed time and again to change their life...

I get it.

...Some of my clients had been in therapy for over 8 YEARS and never seen results like this!

So I really hope you take your time to not only read, but truly understand every part of this method...

...Please seize the opportunity with open arms to really immerse yourself into each chapter of the book.

Oh, and before I forget!

I can't stress enough that you also download the workbook.

When I first released "The Stage Is Yours" to my audience, they unfortunately never had the workbook to guide them alongside.

But you now have this privilege!

Even without it people were sharing glowing testimonials - - but this just added a whole other dimension.

Now, with these two books in mind...

...I believe you'll immediately discover the changes you need to make to start living the best version of yourself!

My hope is that when you put this on your bookshelf, you'll always look back at it fondly and remember the day you started this relationship with Nadine...

...was the day your life changed forever!

It's truly exciting times!

Finally Efe, get started with the book!

Soon I'll be sending over some important things that I can't share right now.

But don't worry...

I know you're going to love what I've been working on!

Speak soon.

Love,

Nadine x

P.S. If you're having any trouble accessing the workbook please reply directly to this email. I usually respond within a day, when I'm CRAZY busv maximum two! But we'll aet everything resolved very quickly!
