Hey Efe,

So I've gotten a lot of questions about the TLD workshop...

And I'm certain they'll clear a lot of confusion for most of you.

So I've taken the liberty to answer a couple of the most important questions...

This will be a VERY long email, so please feel free to look through each question to get the answers you need!

Firstly...

Question 1: What do I actually get inside this workshop?

I noticed there's a lot of confusion about what you actually get inside this workshop...

(Because it's a lot more than you actually think)

See, in addition to the 8 hour experience, where I will be spilling a big chunk of what I know on:

- Breaking habits
- Removing mental limitations
- And manifesting what you want (quickly, easily and effectively)

And how The Life Director Method, I've spent a decade building, can help you achieve the above in a fraction of the time I did...

There's still much more!

Firstly, the spaces are limited to 100 people... But that's not what's interesting to you. What's actually great is that all of these people are going through similar experiences to you.

They're all frustrated by the stress and pressure in their life, determined to break free and also very smart individuals who will not give up until they reach a life where they are in FULL control!

I mean, everyone's life is different. Some people have more demanding lives than others.

However, one thing for sure is, this group of fast actors will be experiencing similar struggles to you, and want freedom as much as you too.

Also it doesn't stop there...

Everyone will have breakout discussions throughout the event, where we go through everything that we're learning towards creating our dream 2025 and start finding ways to put it into action.

This will be your chance to share your experience with others (if you are comfortable) and learn from them too.

It will be a fully prepared environment, where growth is the main objective.

In other words, you will not leave this event even the slightest bit uncertain of where you need to go and what you need to do to get there, since the fast-action plan will be created together.

Oh and there's one more thing too...

Before each break and during our lunch together (where we will all be sitting in one big room), there will be Q&A sections. You will be given the opportunity to ask me questions specific to your life and be coached by me, live in person.

I promise, I will not hold back, I will spill every bit of information that I believe will change your life.

And don't worry, if you don't get the opportunity to ask me a question, like I said, everyone inside will be in the same boat as you.

You are guaranteed to learn something extremely valuable.

So... there's 100 seats inside, and one of them could be yours... If you're willing to take your life to the next level, manifest a balanced, sustainable AND successful future, then...

Now onto the next...

Question 2: "My life is overall very busy, I have very little time in the day, so I'm unsure if your method can actually change anything."...

I hear this a lot.

In fact, I had the same issue and so have many of my clients.

We believe that if we are to continue pushing new heights in our career, that we need to sacrifice time in other areas of our life. We get stressed over this thought and it stops us from growing to the next level.

But (and this is not to brag... only to show you something important)...

I am more successful than ever, and have made my clients more successful than ever, simply through the optimal use of their mind.

I don't give them time or show them how to find time. I don't tell them to take a step back from their dream. I don't help them build skills, gain knowledge, competence, discipline or anything else that is usually associated with success.

Here's what I do instead:

I teach you the simple mental rewiring tools behind the TLD method to help you shoot past your own limitations.

See, after spending decades as an actor, and 15 years as a life coach, and NLP practitioner, I decided to combine the two worlds and create a unique and effective method.

I show you how to think and think like a director so you can be in control over every area of your life... Including your mind.

I teach you the skills of an actor to live fully in the moment...

- . - - - - -

I show you how to become a scriptwriter to create the future YOU desire.

Imagine how much more you could get done in a day with more energy? Imagine how much TIME you could "create", just because you are more effective...

Don't you think your career could be pushed to new heights, without having to sacrifice the important things in life if you had control of your thoughts and actions ALWAYS?

If you had the tools of the scriptwriter, the director and the actor, do you not think a successful life could be sustained, although having many, many responsibilities in life?

The point I'm making is this... As we grow older, with kids, with bigger roles to take on, in a faster paced world, you are always going to lose time that you could spend doing things for yourself.

However, we can't work on what we can't change, we can only take what we have, and where we are now, and learn the necessary and simple tools to go where we want to go.

So with that being said, are you ready to kickstart your journey towards an amazing 2025... and beyond?

["YES! I want to make 2025 the best year of my life"]

Now for the third question... this is an important one!

Question 3: Will this workshop actually address my specific issues?

This is a very valid concern, and I've heard this a lot.

Let me start by saying, I totally understand how you can feel a little nervous at times before attending these workshops.

After all, it's a group of people, coming to step out of their "comfort" zone for a few hours, to experience a life changing event.

Something where your life may never be the same again once you see how much potential is being wasted and how you can unleash it.

So, always feel free to bring a friend, family member, or someone with you who you know will gain enormous

Someone with you who you know will gain enormous value from an event like this so you can support each other through this change.

With that being said, let me tell you who this is for...

- You're a business owner, constantly drained by deadlines... You struggle to find time for your family, and want to know how you can manage this.
- You're in a high pressure career with constant demands and you're starting to burnout.
- Your life is overall very stressful as a mother or father and you're finding it hard to provide for your family, take care of your health, all the while pursuing your career aspirations.
- You doubt yourself a lot, and you just can't seem to workout why. You want a better, more balanced future, but right now you're just struggling to find direction.
- You know you have certain habits, like procrastinating, or binge eating or any other sabotaging activities you want to stop, but you're struggling to find how.
- You ultimately feel stuck in life, uncertain of the future, and you're losing hope that the dreams you once had, may not be possible anymore...

I'm here to tell you that, if any of the above made you nod your head, or atleast make you think "that does sound like me"... Then this workshop is 100% for you.

I'm certain your life will be changed, and if you would like to bring a friend along to go through this experience with you, feel free to do so.

All I can promise is that I will do whatever it takes to make the changes in your life that YOU desire!

So are you ready to reach your greatest potential?

["YES! I'm ready to take my life to the next level"]

Question 4: "I don't feel like what you're promising is truly possible for me..."

This is a big limiting belief many of us hold...

And to be honest, I don't blame you.

When we have kids to raise. When we have our health to take care of. When we have a demanding job. A life of abundance without leaving your other priorities behind may seem almost impossible.

But let me tell you a story of a client I had once who had this same issue...

My client, when we did our first ever session together, was crippled by self-doubt.

She just couldn't bring herself to pursue anything she truly wanted.

Always hesitating, always lacking confidence and worst of all, her friends and family were doing great, while she felt "left behind".

But after just 5 sessions, you know what happened?

Here are her own words:

"my dream life has finally started happening"

And I'm going to let you in on something incredible...

She had been through therapy for 8 years before she came to me to fix this "unknown" issue that was destroying her confidence... and her life.

But in five sessions we fixed it.

Want to know what made the difference?

Going all the way back to her childhood, her sister had laughed at her ideas (out of pure fun and games of course.)

And although this might not seem much to you right now, these little things that make us feel ashamed during our childhood, when our brains are much more impressionable, can change our entire future.

So the point I'm trying to make is this...

My promises may seem too big, or even impossible for you right now, but there's likely invisible walls stopping you from gaining TRUE belief in yourself.

When we smash past these blockades, what once seemed impossible, will not be too far out or reach.

And that's exactly what I'll show you inside this workshop...

How to break past mental barriers, rewire negative thought patterns and manifest your best future!

Question 5: I've invested in a workshop like this before, what makes this different or better?

As far as I know, there is one manifestation event like this before the new year...

One dedicated, and very exclusive to 100 like-minded individuals who know there's a better life waiting for them and are determined to make 2025 their year.

And I'm certain that there is only ONE TLD ® event in the world that has the ability to change your life through a very unique approach.

So if you...

- Want to enter 2025 with unshakeable confidence and undeniable certainty.
- If you are determined to leave a legacy for yourself and your family.
- If you want to learn how to manifest dreams you never thought possible.

All WITHOUT sacrificing your priorities...

And most importantly, do it without causing any pain to yourself for any longer.

Then you will see "why" this TLD ® event will outmatch any events you've been to in the past.

We will come together, join our energy and build a future that us and our family will be proud of.

So are you ready to sit in The Life Director's Chair, rewire your frustrating mental habits and build a future of freedom, abundance and success without sabotaging what matters most?
